Please mark only YES or NO beside every studio location listed below. If there are studios that you would only go to under specific conditions, mark YES. You will have an opportunity to explain these conditions further on. Please be aware that:

1. If you leave any studio locations unmarked, you could be assigned to a class at that location.
2. When you say NO to a studio location you are telling us that even if this is the only location in which we can accommodate you, it will be impossible for you to attend the classes.
3. Please rate the studios in order of your preference, after you have marked YES.

STUDIOS:

LOCATION	YES	NO	RATING
Hamilton West Mountain
Dundas
Burlington South Central
Oakville North-West
Depending on teacher availability
Milton
Depending on teacher availability

1. When filling in the following boxes, only mark the ones relating to the studio locations that you have said YES to on page 2.
2. The following are all the days and times that “Barbara Langhorne’s Music Makers” considers when constructing the timetable. Many factors influence the decision. Your careful prioritizing and consideration of all possible days and times significantly affects the outcome of everyone involved. Please note: all classes are one hour in length.
3. Please be aware that when you say NO to a day or time, you are telling us that you would not attend a class on this day or time, even if this is all we can offer you.
4. If there are days / times that you undoubtedly would not come to, mark NO in each of these boxes.
5. For the days and times that you would come to, mark YES in each of those boxes. Feel free to number your preferences in all of the boxes where you have marked YES, if you wish. Leave no boxes empty. “Barbara Langhorne’s Music Makers” cannot be held responsible if we have to make assumptions on your behalf.
6. If you can only attend some of the days / times / locations under specific conditions, please mark YES in the relevant boxes and make your requirements known on the lines provided below the boxes. If you have more than one child in the program, do not assume that they will be in the same class. Do not assume that they will be in the same studio or that they will be on the same day. If your children are returning students, do not assume that they will automatically have the same teacher again. If any of these arrangements are absolutely necessary, please mark this on the lines provided. If you have more than one child in the program and the conditions are the same, make sure that you note them on the other children’s applications as well. There is no guarantee that we can fulfill every specific need. If you are inflexible, you narrow your chances of getting a suitable placement. Please ask only for essential arrangements.

Example “I would enroll for classes on the Hamilton West Mountain (as indicated on the location chart); however, both my children must be in the same class. Otherwise only one will be able to enroll.”(In this case, please indicate which one!)

7. Please do not use words like prefer, maybe, may, difficult, “iffy” or any other words that leave your position unclear. Be definite – “preferences” will not be interpreted as “requirements.”

Example, “I prefer my child to be in the same class as Bobby Smith.”

If this means that your child NEEDS to come with Bobby Smith (for car-pooling reasons), then state this clearly – “Can only come when Bobby Smith comes.”

8. When writing your requirements please use the words NOT, NO and ONLY.

Example, “Can only attend classes with Bobby Smith.”

9. “Barbara Langhorne’s Music Makers” will consider Saturdays and 6:30 time slots in cases where groups of children indicate that this is the only day/time that they are able to attend.

If you have more than one child in the program, it is imperative that you consider the following question: How much time will you tolerate between your children's classes?

Consider that your children may, or may not, have their lessons at the same studio location and may, or may not, be on the same day. It is understood that back-to-back classes are possible but if this is mandatory or not acceptable at any studio location, this should be explained on the 'conditions' lines following the charts.

Below is a list of possibilities regarding the amount of time that could pass between your children's classes. Your careful prioritizing and consideration of all possible choices affects the outcome. Please mark only YES or NO beside EVERY choice. Do not use any other words. Leave no choices unmarked.

"Barbara Langhorne's Music Makers" cannot be held responsible if we have to make assumptions on your behalf. If there are choices that you would only consider under 'specific conditions' mark YES and explain these conditions on the lines following the list.

For example, "I will only bring my children to the program if classes are back-to-back" or "more than one hour apart."

In your explanations, do not use words like prefer, maybe, may, difficult, iffy, "not likely" or any words that leave your position unclear. Be definite. Use the words NO, NOT & ONLY.

For example, "I will not come if classes are back-to-back."

Preferences will not be interpreted as needs.

For example, "I prefer back-to-back classes." If this means that back-to-back is the only arrangement that you will consider, then say so.

For example, "Back-to-back classes ONLY, or none of my children will be coming."

There is no guarantee that we can fulfill every specific need. If you are inflexible, you narrow your chances of getting a suitable placement. Please ask only for essential arrangements.

For example, "If my children's classes are going to be on the same day, then we will only attend if classes are at the same studio – otherwise only one child will enroll." (In this case, please indicate which child).

Please consider that if you say NO to one of the choices, you are telling us that even if this is the only arrangement that we can offer, you will NOT come once a week.

- It is likely that the teachers will invite parents and loved ones into the classroom on the last day. It is important to the children that you are there to recognize their achievements. - In the event of a class cancellation, we will make every effort to contact you as soon as possible by calling the phone numbers provided by you on your application form.
- If a lesson is cancelled by "Barbara Langhorne's Music Makers", we may be able to arrange a "make-up" lesson. Call the office for information.
